

Llewellyn Family Newsletter #4

Some one asked me last week why I do what I do a crust.
Fair enough question I thought.
Simple, I have been a tragic, since I was sixteen.

I am off to spanner for the national road cycling team in Melbourne.
So I will be away Friday night 10/03/06 till Wednesday the 29th. Any thing I can help all you good people with will have to wait till my return.

For when you have a bit of spare time check these links out from the "North American Hand Built Show"
This fantastic event shines the light on some of the best craftsman in the USA.

Dazza and Tania will be there next year. The Commonwealth Games gig stopped us going this year but I intend to go next year and fly the Aussie flag.
